

Introduction to the Go India Initiative @ Ritsumeikan Tokyo Campus Saturday, 1/12/19.

Go India Initiative

January 12th, 2019.
15:00-17:00.

Ritsumeikan Tokyo
Campus (Located in the Sapia Tower
just next to Tokyo Station)

This event will introduce the Go India Initiative and is aimed at high school and university teachers and staff members. At the event Ms. Ishana Malkani and Mr. Aditya Malkani will introduce the range of study abroad programs Go India offers and take questions from the audience. The event will be a small gathering and attendees will have direct access to the Go India staff.

Aditya Malkani is Managing Partner of Think Education Advisory Services and was previously India Country Head for King's College London. Ishana Malkani is a partner at Think Education and is involved with a wide range of educational and charity initiatives in India.

The Go India Initiative offers high-quality short-term immersion experiences in India for high-school and university students as well as for corporations. In addition to King's College London, they have worked with Rutgers University, The University of York, IIE, Pearson, and the Institute for Strategic Leadership in Japan (ISL), among others. They are highly respected in their field and have many years of experience.

The Go India team partners with schools, businesses, government, and NGOs in India in order to offer tailored, fit-for-purpose study programs for people of all ages. Programs are entirely customizable and fees are negotiable based on school's requirements and context.

The event on the 12th will be followed by a small social gathering where attendees can mingle with Aditya and Ishana over a few drinks.
